Zero Tolerance for Sexual Abuse and Sexual Harassment: Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA)

ZERO TOLERANCE

The Florida Department of Juvenile Justice has a zero-tolerance policy for sexual abuse and sexual harassment. What does this really mean? It means that YOU have the right to be free from sexual abuse and sexual harassment by anyone at the facility, including a resident, staff member, volunteer, or contractor. No one has the right to sexually abuse or sexually harass you. No one.

What Is Sexual Harassment?

- Repeated and unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; or verbal comments, gestures, or actions of a derogatory or offensive sexual nature.

What Is Sexual Abuse?

- Forced or coerced sexual misconduct or sexual contact when the victim does not consent or is unable to consent or refuse. This may include the use of fear or threat of physical violence, psychological intimidation, bullying, and physical force.
- Sexual abuse also can include incidents of staff voyeurism.

What is staff voyeurism?

An invasion of privacy of a resident by a staff member, contractor, or volunteer for reasons unrelated to official duties.

Examples of Staff Voyeurism

- Watching resident use the toilet, shower, or change clothes.
- Requiring a resident to show his/her buttocks, genitals, or breasts.
- Taking pictures of a resident's naked body or toilet use.

Tips for Avoiding Sexual Abuse and Sexual Harassment

A victim is never to blame for being attacked, but these tips may help you lower your risk of sexual abuse or sexual harassment.

- Pay attention to your surroundings.
- Carry yourself in a confident manner at all times.
- Do not accept gifts or favors from others. They usually come with "strings attached" or future paybacks, including sexual favors.
- Do not accept an offer from another resident to be your protector or "friend."
- Find a staff member with whom you feel comfortable discussing your fears and concerns. Confide in him/her if you feel threatened.
- Be direct and firm when others ask you to do things that you do not want to do.
- Do not give mixed messages to others regarding your wishes for sexual activity.
- Choose your acquaintances wisely.
